The Greater Stockton Chamber of Commerce's Agricultural Hall of Fame Honors Exceptional Growers

Recipients have their portrait and biography included in the Ag Hall of Fame display at the San Joaquin Historical Museum

SEPTEMBER 2004 - Those who appreciate the valuable contributions growers have made to our county will join other Ag supporters at the Greater Stockton Chamber of Commerce's Agricultural Hall of Fame Banquet on Thursday, October 28, at the Stockton Civic Auditorium. We'll be honoring those individuals who have put countless hours and much love of the land into improving the agricultural industry throughout the years.

The evening begins with a no-host social hour at 6 PM, dinner at 7, and a program lauding the outstanding physical and emotional investments made by our exceptional award recipients. Last year's recipients were Robert L. Clark, James Edwards, Adrian C. Fondse, Herbert A. Speckman and posthumously, Edward Dinsdale. These outstanding award recipients, as well as those inducted in previous years, have their photograph and biography on permanent display at the San Joaquin County Historical Museum.

We look forward to your joining us at this celebratory event! Tickets are $25 until October 21, and $30 thereafter. For further information, please call 547-2930.
